The Mostellaria is written in verse, and certain sections of it are designed to be sung; we have set these and others to music. In ancient times accompaniment would have been provided by a double-reed instrument similar to an oboe. Scenes 1-2: A family of bats has stowed away on a ship from Egypt to visit Athens.

Plautus' Mostellaria ("The Haunted House") - 2008 - Classics

Mostellaria is a Roman comedy by Plautus. Although there is uncertainty about the date of performance and its Greek original, it has been suggested that the play was staged after 193 B.C. and may be based on the non-extant New Comedy Phasma (Ghost) by Philemon.. Mostellaria is a typical Roman comedy in many ways. It includes stock characters, like two old
